Dear Parishioners,

I have invited Fr. Dan Schlegel to come on March 20th at 3:00 PM, March 21st at 7:00 PM, and March 22nd at 7:00 PM to offer a three-evening Parish Lenten Mission. The theme is “Where Love Is, God is Found.”

Fr. Schlegel is the Vicar for Clergy and Religious for the Diocese of Cleveland. He works directly with the bishop in making assignments of priests, deacons, and religious sisters and brothers. He handles any issues that may require attention with regard to clergy and religious. Fr. Schlegel was formerly the pastor of Holy Angels Parish in Bainbridge. He has a gift for story-telling, music, and spiritual depth. He has been a significant mentor and friend for me, personally.

The purpose of a Parish Lenten Mission is to guide the community toward a more profound experience of Christ and the mysteries of Holy Week. All are welcome, including those from other parishes. If there is a parish mission at a neighboring parish whose theme inspires you, please feel free to attend. Do not let this Lenten season pass you by without taking advantage of the gifts being offered.

I know we will all benefit immensely from our Parish Lenten Mission this year. We are so blessed to have such a fine speaker. I am sure you will give him a warm welcome. May God bless us on our journey from Calgary to eternity.

In Christ,

Father Michael J. Stalla

The Rosary is prayed every morning in the church beginning at 8am before daily Mass.

Ukraine Rosary Crusade

A world at prayer is a world of peace - our Lady's message was to pray the Rosary for world peace. We will begin a Rosary Crusade for the Ukraine, storming the Heavens with prayers for the people living under siege and the soldiers in danger. We will have tally sheets in the chapel and at the Blessed Mother's altar if you would like to note the Rosaries you have prayed. Her words to the children at Fatima was that every Rosary prayed will do good to suppress evil in the world. As a community of prayerful people we ask her intervention by praying the Rosary.

Prayer for Peace in Ukraine

God of all people, We pray for peace today and everyday, especially for the people of Ukraine. Send your Spirit of wisdom upon our world leaders. May the decisions they make be in the interest of all earth's citizens. Send your Spirit of compassion upon those who bear arms. May they turn instead to reconciliation and dialogue. Send your Spirit of healing upon those who are injured. May they know your touch through the hands of those who care for them. Send your Spirit of welcome upon those who are killed in this act of war. May they know the embrace of your love. Send your Spirit of consolation on those who have lost loved ones. May they know comfort in your promise that one day they will see them again. Send your Spirit of protection on those who have lost their homes. May they find shelter and security. Send your Spirit of hospitality on all nations. May they welcome refugees into their midst. Send your Spirit of hope upon your world. May we live into your vision of a future of justice and peace. Amen.

First Reading

Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18

The Lord God took Abram outside and said, “Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can. Just so”, he added, “shall your descendants be.” Abram put his faith in the Lord, who credited it to him as an act of righteousness. He then said to him, “I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession.” “O Lord God”, he asked, “how am I to know that I shall possess it?” He answered him, “Bring me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old she-goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.” Abram brought him all these, split them in two, and placed each half opposite each other; but the birds did not cut up. Birds of prey swooped down on the carcasses, but Abram stayed with them. As the sun set, a trance fell upon Abram, and a deep terrifying darkness enveloped him. When the sun had set and it was dark, there appeared a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch, which passed between those pieces. It was on that occasion that the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying: “To your descendants I give this land, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Great River, the Euphrates.”

Responsorial Psalm

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

The Lord is my light and my salvation;
whom should I fear?

The Lord is my life’s refuge;
of whom should I be afraid?—Refrain

Hear, O Lord, the sound of my call;
have pity on me, and answer me.
Of you my heart speaks; you my glance seeks.—Refrain

Your presence, O Lord, I seek.
Hide not your face from me;
do not in anger repel your servant.
You are my helper: cast me not off.—Refrain

I believe that I shall see the bounty of the Lord in the land of the living.
Wait for the Lord with courage;
be stouthearted, and wait for the Lord.—Refrain

Second Reading

Philippians 3:17-4:1

Join with others in being imitators of me, brothers and sisters, and observe those who thus conduct themselves according to the model you have in us. For many, as I have often told you and now tell you even in tears, conduct themselves as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction. Their God is their stomach; their glory is in their “shame.” their minds are occupied with earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. He will change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body by the power that enables him also to bring all things into subjection to himself. Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, in this way stand firm in the Lord.

The Word of the Lord—All Reply: Thanks be to God

Gospel

Luke 9:28b-36

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothes became dazzling white. And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem. Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. As they were about to part from him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good that we are here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” But he did not know what he was saying. While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, “This is my chosen Son; listen to him.” After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen.

The Gospel of the Lord—Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

The Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (At the words that follow, up to and including, ‘and became man’, all bow.) And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

Worthy of ev'ry song
we could ever sing
Worthy of all the praise
we could ever bring
Worthy of ev'ry breath
we could ever breathe
We live for You

Verse 2

Jesus the name above
ev'ry other name
Jesus the only one who could ever save
Worthy of ev'ry breath
we could ever breathe
We live for You
We live for You

Chorus

Holy there is no one like You
There is none beside You Open up my eyes in wonder and show me who You are
And fill me with Your heart
And lead me in Your love
to those around me

Bridge

I will build my life
upon Your love
It is a firm foundation
I will put my trust in You alone
And I will not be shaken
