We the members of the Rabatin and Zielinsky family thank you all from the bottom of our hearts for all the prayers, support and love that was given to Bill and our family during his illness and his death.

May our Precious Lord Bless You all!!

Dear Parishioners,

This summer, our parish will be hosting a series of “Block Parties” for the purpose evangelizing Twinsburg. We want to remind our neighbors that we are here, that they are welcome, and that it is time to come back to church, wherever they may worship. That being said, there’s no reason why we can’t have a bit of fun in the community at the same time.

June 27th—Growing Faith-Summer Faith fun for families after 11am Mass

June 30th—Dog Party for Fr. Michael’s dog, Chula- Bring your pets!

July 3rd—Ethnic Cookout - Try some foreign cuisines.

July 7th—Ice Cream Social at Handel’s- Who doesn’t like ice cream?

July 17th—Duck Race and Games at Idlewood Park- Great for Kids.

July 18th—1890’s style Garden Party in the Town Square-Dress Up!

July 25th—Refreshing Faith-Summer Faith fun for families after 11am Mass

July 31st—Rock the Dock at Aurora Shores - Music and boats.

Aug. 7/8th—Twinsdays!

Aug. 28th—Amplify Faith Christian Rock Concert at the Twinsburg Amphitheater

Aug. 29th—Family Mass & Faith Formation Open House after 11am Mass

Sept. 11th—Come and See Event at the Church- What Make’s Catholics Distinct?

Sept. 15th—Alpha- An introduction to Christianity, at the Twinsburg Library

While our primary target audiences are those in each of the neighborhoods, all are welcome. Nothing draws a crowd like a crowd. Thanks for your prayers and support!

In Christ,

Father Michael J. Stalla

Hey Everybody – It's Time!!!

Time to register for Faith Formation for all parish children ages 4 up through 8th grade! (We will have information soon on the high school plan for this year!) While we are still updating our registration forms for this next school year, you will still be able to register for regular religious education classes and for

First Communion and Confirmation preparation classes. Go ahead and register even if the year appears wrong to you – we'll still get it! While you will be able to pick up hard copy registration packets in the gathering area of the church (by the windows) and in the Parish Center, most people are finding it easiest to register on our parish webpage!

Go to www.sscosmas-damian.org and click on "Learning the Faith" and then "Formation of Children and Youth." You will be able to click on the registration link from there!

Please note that the $50 family registration fee will be waived for all families registering before August 1st! This helps us so much as we prepare our classrooms and recruit our catechists!!! Additional discounts are available for families who pay their tuition in full by September 1st. As always, confidential financial assistance is available. Just indicate on your application, or contact Mrs. Joni Smith directly at X 110.

ALTAR SERVERS

As we begin to schedule more liturgical ministers at Mass, we are currently in need of more Altar Servers. Altar Serving is open to kids in the fourth grade or above. Adults are also welcome to volunteer as Altar Servers. Being an Altar Server is a great way to learn more about what happens during Mass. If you are interested in becoming an Altar Server, please contact Rachel Pollack (330)425-8141 x102 or email Rachel@sscosmas-damian.org. No experience is necessary. We will provide training.

"Always go forward and never turn back."

-St. Junipero Serra (feast day July 1)

All are invited to attend Catholic Renewal Ministries' 38th Annual Summer

Conference to be held on Saturday, July 10th, at SS. Cosmas & Damian Parish, Twinhaven Reception Center, in Twinsburg.

This year's theme is "Give New Signs Work New Wonders". The conference will run from 8:30 am to 3:45 p.m., and the Vigil Mass will be celebrated at 4:00. Our featured speakers will be Ralph Martin and Peter Herbeck from Renewal Ministries in Ann Arbor, Michigan, Fr. Michael Stalla, and Fr. Bob Franco. Matt Fafrak will lead us in contemporary praise music throughout the day.

At Twinhaven, the capacity is limited, so register early. Online access is also planned. SS. Cosmas & Damian is located at 10419 Ravenna Rd., Twinsburg 44087. The onsite registration will close on July 3rd or when capacity is met. Please check the CRM website, www.crmweb.org, for more conference information, registration details/forms, and information about the online access as it is posted.

Come, experience the healing power and gifts of the Holy Spirit!

Children's Liturgy of the Word! (CLOW)

CLOW will be back after the Labor Day holiday, but we wanted to get a few sessions in before that! We miss all the little ones out there, and we are excited to see you at Mass! So, for just a few special days over the summer, we will be offering CLOW especially designed for children from 3 years old up to First Communion (roughly!) Fr. Michael will call the children from the assembly at Mass just before we begin the readings, and they will be led to the Adoration Chapel where they will have a kid-friendly liturgy, very similar to what we are doing in the main church. They will return to you as we begin to prepare the altar for Holy Communion.

Sunday, June 27 at the 11 am Mass, July 25, and August 29 in conjunction with family programs that will be taking place after each of these Masses, we will offer the Children's Liturgy! You do not need to register for anything in order for your child to participate. Simply send them up to the front of the church when Fr. Michael calls for the children. Be sure that your child knows where you are sitting, so that when they return to the main worship space they will know how to find you!

Interested in becoming part of our C.L.O.W team? Adults take turns leading the children, ideally about once a month. If this sounds like something you might be interested in, contact Mrs. Joni Smith X 110!

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,
we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading

Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living. For he fashioned all things that they might have being; and the creatures of the world are wholesome, and there is not a destructive drug among them nor any domain of the netherworld on earth, for justice is undying. For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it.

Responsorial Psalm

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will extol you, O Lord, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O Lord, you brought me up from the netherworld;
you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.—Refrain

Sing praise to the Lord, you his faithful ones,
and give thanks to his holy name.
For his anger lasts but a moment;
a lifetime, his good will.
At nightfall, weeping enters in,
but with the dawn, rejoicing.—Refrain

Hear, O Lord, and have pity on me;
O Lord, be my helper.
You changed my mourning into dancing;
O Lord, my God, forever will I give you thanks.—Refrain

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Brothers and sisters: As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also. For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.

Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality. As it is written: Whoever had much did not have more, and whoever had little did not have less.

Gospel

Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeking him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him. There was a woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years. She had suffered greatly at the hands of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet she was not helped but only grew worse. She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak. She said, "If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured." Immediately her flow of blood dried up. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. Jesus, aware at once that power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who has touched my clothes?" But his disciples said to Jesus, "You see how the crowd is pressing upon you, and yet you ask, 'Who touched me?'" And he looked around to see who had done it. The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction." While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?" Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the Synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha Koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.

The Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (At the words that follow, up to and including, 'and became man', all bow.)

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen
