Dear Parishioners,

As we look at the end of Spring and the beginning of Summer, we find ourselves closing out another school year and, inevitably, thinking of the changes and opportunities that lie ahead for our youth and their families. I am excited for the many opportunities that we have available for our youth and families. I am proud that we continue to, guided by the Holy Spirit, try to work to provide, create, and edit these opportunities in a way that will best serve our families, our parish, our community, and, of course, Christ.

This coming week, our VBS program will return after covid caused a hiatus! Many hands have come together and put in tremendous time and effort to create a fun and exciting program for our children to help them to make deep and lasting connections to their faith. We have been thrilled by the number of teens and adults who have signed up to be a part of this program in one way or another; we are truly a blessed parish!

Throughout the month of June, we will be continuing our partnership with Our Lady of Guadalupe, St. Rita's, and Church of the Resurrection for our Mission Mondays program. This is a weekly mission camp for our high school students to gather together in service, faith activities, and community activities. Through Mission Mondays, we are able to touch many lives and help our teens grow in their faith. Our kickoff carnival is June 6 at OLG. Registration is still available at missionmondays.org.

Finally, this fall we will be starting an Aftercare program here at Ss. Cosmas and Damian. Students will be able to be bussed here from Twinsburg Schools and we are offering a fun and safe aftercare option that, in addition to providing snack, play, and homework time, will also provide an enriching Catholic culture including Mass, children's choir, prayer practice, and more! If you are interested in getting more information for your children, or if you are interested in being a part of this new and exciting opportunity, please let me know.

I thank you all for the beautiful way that you support the many endeavors of this parish. I am so grateful for this wonderful community!

God Bless,

Keri Knowles

Fr. John Singler is celebrating his 40th anniversary of ordination at St. Mary Church in Berea on June 12th. Mass will be at 11:30am with a reception to follow at the Garrity Center. All are welcome!

The Rosary is prayed every morning in the church beginning at 8am before daily Mass.

Gardening & Landscape Ministry

We are primarily a group that plans and implements projects to improve, simplify, and maintain the outside campus. All our works are donated time and talents. We are a small group headed by Karen Fullerman, who is master gardener. We are always looking for more people to help. There are opportunities for families, teen volunteer hours, individuals or couples who are looking for a way to give of themselves and make new friendships, enjoyment, or just helping to clean up. You can help on just one project or many. It is truly satisfying mentally, physically, and spiritually. And a great way to help our church look and stay looking beautiful.

Experience NOT necessary. We invite all to be part of our on going projects and maintenance.

If interested call Karen Fullerman (330)998-4713 or Therese Morrish (440)552-6847

Protecting God's Children

The Diocese of Cleveland's "protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, please contact the

Diocesan Response Service Office at 216-334-2999 or via email at response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org

You are also asked to immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

Responsorial Psalm

Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the Lord, O my soul!

O Lord, my God, you are great indeed!

How manifold are your works, O Lord!

The earth is full of your creatures.—Refrain

If you take away their breath, they perish and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth.—Refrain

May the glory of the Lord endure forever; may the Lord be glad in his works!

Pleasing to him be my theme;

I will be glad in the Lord.—Refrain

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Gospel

John 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

The Gospel of the Lord—Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

The Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(At the words that follow, up to and including, 'and became man', all bow.)

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

Verse 1

There's nothing worth more that will ever come close
No thing can compare You're our living hope
Your Presence

Verse 2

I've tasted and seen of the sweetest of loves
Where my heart becomes free and my shame is undone
In Your Presence Lord

Chorus

Holy Spirit You are welcome here
Come flood this place and fill the atmosphere
Your glory God is what our hearts long for
To be overcome by Your Presence Lord

Reflection: Spirit Of The Living God

Verse 1

Spirit of the living God(x2)
We only want to hear Your voice
We're hanging on ev'ry word
Spirit of the living God(x2)
We want to know You more and more
We're hanging on ev'ry word

Interlude

Come and speak to us O Lord

Chorus

'Cause when You speak and when You move
When You do what only You can do
It changes us
It changes what we see and what we seek
When You come in the room
When You do what only You can do
It changes us
It changes what we see and what we seek
You're changing ev'rything

Verse 2

Spirit of the living God(x2)
We're leaning in to all You are
Ev'rything else can wait
Spirit of the living God(x2)
Come now and breathe upon our hearts
Come now and have Your way

Bridge

When You move You move all our fears
When You move You move us to tears(x2)

Bridge

When You fall we fall on our knees
When You fall we fall at Your feet(x2)

Ending
